

■ Wye Farmers Market celebrated May Day with morris dancing

Picture by Danny Rhodes pd1200805

Exuberant dancers herald spring

DESPITE a dramatic downturn in the weather, the latest Wye Farmers' Market celebrated spring with a May Day festival of morris dancing.

Organiser Sarah Huntley arranged for Oyster Morris, a men's and women's group, to perform their exuberant Cotswold-style dances among the stalls.

The Rumworth Morris side from Bolton also gave spectacular displays of northern clog dancing.